INTERVISION ENTERTAINMENT

Intervision Entertainment is an emerging production house for theater and film seeking to promote local authors and artists while entertaining mainstream audiences. Intervision Entertainment was built on two major principles. 1st: artists should not have to sacrifice in order to create art the public will enjoy, and 2nd: what the public truly enjoys is simply a good story.

From The Director:

1940. The world was at war, but America wasn't fighting in it...yet. Financial times were good for many, but others will still "just trying to get by". Movies had become a general pastime: black and white images filling the screen with dynamic characters with whom you loved or loved to hate. For me, a good show makes me want to step right into the moment...just a little bit closer to see the incredible action in person. And then John McKinley handed me a script where I could see the smoke filled room, hear the melodic tones of the lounge singers and envision patrons at tables stepping briefly into another time, immersed in the sights and sounds. I hope you enjoy Mickey & Worm as much as I do.

Artist and Artisan Bios

(In alphabetical order)

Joe Filippone (Dan) Joe Filippone has been performing for over twenty years and is happy to be a part of this show. He has appeared in numerous TV, web series and films such as Cut! Hard Sun, Consumers and in a non-sex role in Kay Brandt's upcoming film Safe Landings for Adam And Eve Pictures as well as dozens of theatrical productions including The Philadelphia, When It Rains Gasoline (which he also directed) Sex, Relationships And Sometimes Love in the role of Orgasm Man which he played for three years and most recently in the world premiere of The Claw. Joe has also lent his voice to the animated short film Abbie's First Egg as well as the upcoming indie video game The Thing 2. He has portrayed the goblin, Splatt, the past two years for the Labyrinth Masquerade Ball and has also performed stand up all over LA as well as touring and performing in Chicago at The Laugh Factory, Washington and Ashland Oregon as well as modeling for various photographers and having his pictures displayed and sold at various conventions and art galleries. An accomplished writer with over sixty short stories and eight novels published Joe has been nominated for both a LAMBDA and CAPA Award.

Matthew Grant (Alfred Arthur "Bookworm" Wingate) Matt would like to thank all of you for coming and hopes you love the show as much as he loves performing for you.

Nic Hobbs (Barnaby Jones) Nic Hobbs is thrilled to be a part of Mickey and Worm since its World Premiere in Oxnard, CA in 2013. Hobbs has done several shows in the area over the last few years including Grease, Footloose, Godspell, and Miss Saigon. He hopes you enjoy the show!

Ryan Phillips (Mickey “Southside Brawler” Donegan/Executive Producer): Getting back into the performance ring as both a producer and as an artist has been beyond rewarding and truly a life changing experience. You may have caught Ryan locally in shows such as Harvey, The Lost Formicans, & the world premiere of Twinkle, Twinkle Killer Kane at SPTC. Ryan is excited to be reprising the roll of Mickey for the Mickey & Worm Tour. Ryan would like to thank his incredible director for bring this to life, the writer for creating it, and cast for coming together through everything. Taking this show from the banquet hall of a local gastro-pub to a multi-state tour is mind-blowing. This performance is dedicated to his lovely wife, director and fellow producer Ghislaine. To infinity.

Kaitlyn Reuben (Giselle) Kaitlyn is very happy to be working with Intervision Entertainment, and moreover to be taking over as Giselle! Kaitlyn has been performing since she was 3 years old, starring in my title roles such as Little Red Riding Hood (Into The Woods) Alice (Alice In Wonderland) and Maria (West Side Story). She toured in Annie. Kaitlyn has also choreographed many shows. She is excited about being a part of these amazing artists and artisans!

Kendra Smith (Stage Manager) Kendra comes to this show with 3 years of experience from TrebleMakers, including working on Music Man Jr., where she helped both behind the scenes as well as performed on stage! In addition she has several years' worth of experience as a private music teacher. Recently, Kendra has also stepped up to the plate as a producer with Intervision Entertainment. A big thank you goes to Ghislaine, Ryan & Wolf for their encouragement and unending strength!

Samantha Von Bitter (Margie/Cocktail Waitress/Ticket Seller) is delighted to be performing in her first production. She has been a performing musician for 20 years, currently lead vocals and upright bassist for the band Graveyard Bandits

Korinne Alexis Willkening (Madeline Ball) Korinne is extremely excited to be joining the cast of Mickey & Worm during this incredible tour. This is Korinne's second collaboration with Ghislaine and Ryan having worked with them with the Gypsies in a Trunk troupe in Ventura County touring Fairy Tales in the Park for children in each city. Korinne's past credits include Red Rat dancer in Jekyll and Hyde at High Street Center in Moorpark, Dory in Merrily We Roll Along at Moorpark College, as well as several hauntingly awesome characters at Universal Studios Halloween Horror Nights. She would like to thank her family and friends for their continued support and especially her amazing fiancé Robert for being her lobster. I Love You!

Wolfman Dave (Lou Atwater) David M. Pereyra is a Los Angeles native and long-time storyteller. Under the alias "Wolfman Dave", he operates as a writer, artist, musician, actor, and now a creative producer for Intervision Entertainment. His acting credits include a healthy helping of Shakespeare and twentieth-century musicals; his playwright credits include the Halloween shows, Scary Stories to Tell at Bar One and Stories and Songs of Fear, and the Christmas show, What the Dickens?! (and Other Stories). He looks forward to his silver-screen debut in the film "Broken Spirits" upon its release next year, and to this summer's Labyrinth Masquerade where he will reprise the role of the wizard Dulcimer. He hopes you enjoy the show!

Ghislaine (Director & Special Guest Appearance as Annabelle Lee Walker) Ghislaine is a producer, writer, a director, a (classically trained) singer, an actress and apparently a Jill-of-all-trades. Ghislaine is best known for the creation of TrebleMakers Music Academy, a successful music enrichment program for children of all ages throughout Ventura County. When not directing and writing, you can catch her as Piingu Meh'hukah or Songbird, The Goblin Singer at The 18th Annual Labyrinth Masquerade Ball at the Park Plaza Hotel in Los Angeles. Ghislaine would like to thank this amazing team of actors, artists, crew, family and friends that have worked so hard to make this vision a reality. Special thanks go to her talented and supportive husband Ryan, who proves every day that while "A Good Man is Hard to Find", he's well worth waiting for!

John McKinley (playwright)

John's Ventura County theatrical resume spans over seventeen years and over thirty productions as an actor, director and producer. Many of his plays have received productions and staged readings. His audio script adaptations have won industry awards from Independent Publisher and National Parenting Publications. He directed the world premiere of William Peter Blatty's (The Exorcist) Twinkle, Twinkle, "Killer" Kane. He recently produced and directed a collection of short one act plays, Playzapoppin!, at Santa Paula Theater Center. John is currently working on two full length plays. Bridal Books, a comedy, is about a bride-to-be who invites her fiancé and future mother-in-law over for a home-cooked dinner, and chaos ensues. The second play, Whiteout, a drama, is about seemingly normal people, trapped in a ski chalet during a blizzard, who reveal and discover more about themselves and each other than they could ever imagine... (and maybe some of them are dead.) John thanks Ryan Phillips and Ghislaine Sopher-Phillips, for their vision and enthusiasm. Also a big thank you to so many people who have helped make this vision a reality. Lastly, he thanks you, the audience member, for volunteering to become immersed in the experience that is Mickey & Worm.
