(In alphabetical order)

Cliff Siner II (Worm) Cliff Siner II was born in Milwaukee, WI and raised in Los Angeles. He began acting at four years old in both stage and film. Currently he has been training in meisner, scene study, and theatre.

Ian Williamson (Barns the Bartender) Hailing from Washington state (where they make the Apples), his California acting debuting takes his already prolific career to new heights. He is redebating on stage after a 10 year hiatus when he left junior high theatre at the top of his game. His former portrayals of the phantom in "The Phantom of the Opera" as well as a more recent turn as the infamous and expansive 'pusher man' in "Fame!" left audiences riveted and yearning for more. Aren't you glad he's back? Did you notice he was gone? Are you even still reading?

Intervision Entertainment would like to give special thanks STAC and the Santa Paula Theater Center for loan of props, costumes, time and expertise without you we would not have been able to make this endeavor possible

Santa Paula Theater Center

Santa Paula Theater Center for all they did to bring this world to life. He would also like to thank the staff of the Kitchen for your hard work taking care of our guests, cast and crew, the cast and crew for bringing this vision to life, and the patrons who came to enjoy the show; none of the work matters without you here.

Tammy Mora (Giselle) Tammy Mora is self-trained actress from Ventura County with her sights set exclusively on stage performance. She holds a degree in English from Pace University in New York, from which a love of and skill at writing continues to keep her busy and exhausted. She would like to thank her parents for taking this difficult journey with her, as well as her cast and crew for their beautiful work, pleasant conversation, and above all, their bravery. You all inspire me in so many ways.

Tawni Eccles (Stage Manager) Tawni is very excited to work with Intervision Entertainment! A little history about her, she has been in production for the last 30years. Stage managing for theater and opera companies and doing weddings, festivals, church productions, and school graduations. Her cup is filled when she can take all the tech aspects of an event and make it run smooth. She loves the swirling energy each new gig brings!

Jennifer Roach (Maddy) is on stage for this premier showing of Mickey and Worm. She has been in multiple productions throughout Los Angeles and Ventura County, on stage in NOHO, Moorpark, Camarillo, Thousand Oaks, Simi Valley, and most recently with Santa Paula in "Random". Her lifelong career in acting includes television, radio, voice overs, and theater. She is very excited to be performing on stage here with such a talented group of actors. A big thanks to Ghislaine Sopher-Phillips for inviting me to be here! Break a leg everyone!

John Kelly (Prop Artist) John has been building props and exhibits for 21 years. He spent 14 years building exhibits for Gull Wings Children's Museum Oxnard.

John McKinley (playwright) In addition to Mickey & Worm, John is the author of three other full length plays, Blood Kiss, Nine Ways to Sunday and Mr. Stan's Story. He is at work on a fourth full-length play titled Bridal Books, a comedy. He has written many short plays, several of which have been produced. He also has adapted many classic literary works for Monterey Media for their Theatre of the Mind series. These audio plays include the talents of multiple voice actors, original music and sound effects. Several of the adaptations have won industry awards. John is a Ventura County resident and has appeared as an actor, director, writer and producer, in many productions over the last seventeen years, most recently at Santa Paula Theater Center's production of Arcadia where he portrayed Mr. Chater. In 2010, in association with William Peter Blatty, author of The Exorcist, John directed the world premiere of Blatty's play Twinkle, Twinkle, "Killer" Kane on the SPTC Backstage. John thanks Ghislaine Sopher-Philips, Ryan Philips, Intervision Entertainment and Cathy Moreno (proprietor of The Kitchen on A) for presenting Mickey & Worm in such a uniquely and entertainingly conducive manner. He also thanks everyone who was curious enough to come share in the Mickey and Worm experience, a "film noir" for the stage with fedoras and femme fatales, mobsters and molls, busted dreams and double crosses. He lastly thanks the cast, crew and, especially his wife, Lisa, for always being in his corner

Ken Jones (Lou Atwater) Ken has performed in multiple productions and venues all over the Ventura County. A theatre veteran of well over 18 years some of his favorite roles have been Michael Flaherty, in Playboy of the Western World, William Blore, in Ten Little Indians, Montfleury, in Cyrano De Bergerac, Thomas Putnam, in The Crucible, Mr. Bumble, in Oliver, Colonel Pickering, in My Fair Lady, Chief Sitting Bull, in Annie Get Your Gun, Lazar Wolfe, in Fiddler On The Roof. Theatre happens when a group of people come together for the purpose of telling a story. For a short time they become the characters in that story. The magic happens when you the audience flip the switch of imagination and join them on the journey. I sincerely hope you enjoy the ride.

Lovelynn Sweet (Margo VanderMeer) Down to earth, soulful and sultry, Lovelynn Sweet is a delicate balance of chaos and peace. Journey through her graceful darkness of beautiful pain. Lovelynn Sweet produces a conscious flow of neo-soul and hip-hop, pursuing the art of storytelling.

Nic Hobbs (Dan) Nic Hobbs is thrilled to be a part of "Mickey and Worm"! Hobbs has done several shows in the area over the last few years including Grease, Footloose, Godspell, and Miss Saigon. He hopes you enjoy the show and the food!

Olivia Heulitt (Margie, Cocktail Waitress) Olivia is so excited to be a part of this production. Her favorite past roles include Lily St Regis (Annie), Gertie Cummings (Oklahoma!), Pem Farnsworth (The Farnsworth Invention), Mother/Grace Bradley (The Best Christmas Pageant), and Viola (Twelfth Night). Recently she has been directing kids' shows! She directed Guys & Dolls Jr and Aladdin Jr. She is currently getting her Criminal Justice degree from Ventura College and plans to become a certified Paralegal or Police Officer. Love to Pumpkin! Jeremiah 29:11

Ryan Phillips (Producer, Mickey Donegan) Ryan would like to thank John McKinley for writing such an exquisite piece, Kathy of the Kitchen on A for hosting the event, and Ghislaine for her help in producing as well directing the vision. A special thanks goes to S.T.A.C and the
